Queens College Art Center

"Express/Local: New York Regional Aesthetics," for many New Yorkers, their borough is the deciding factor for the pizza they eat, the baseball team they cheer & their general attitude about life, but can it influence the kind of art they make? Queens College Art Center explores the possible effects of geography on art as we transplant artists - including Howard Lerner, Anne Pundyk, Tommy Mintz & Kristyna & Marek Milde - from around the five boroughs of NYC for a month-long residency. Jan 28-June 30. Opening reception: Thurs, May 5, 5-8 pm; curator & artists' talk, 6-7 pm
